Forecast For Highland & Eilean Siar
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 21 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Windy with rain, sleet and snow.

Today:
Frequent showers or longer spells of rain, sleet and snow will continue to filter southwards throughout the day, accompanied by strong northerly winds. This gives the risk of blizzard conditions. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tonight:
It will remain cloudy with scattered wintry showers continuing through this evening and overnight but winds will gradually ease by dawn. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Friday:
There will be further wintry showers during Friday but these becoming increasingly confined to the coast into the evening. Maximum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
There will be a good deal of dry and bright weather over the coming days, but with a chance of scattered wintry showers around the coasts over the weekend.
